TALK OF THE TOWN

Special feature, "Hate," Bijou to-day. adv.

Dance, Howland hall, Saturday night; girls 75c, ladies 10c.—adv.

The Tourist club will meet with Mrs. J. Ward Carver Monday at 2:30 p. m.

Mrs. F. L. Goodspeed has returned from a several weeks' stay with relatives in and near Boston.

Mrs. N. D. Phelps returned last evening from a visit of a few weeks with her sister in Winchester, Mass.

"The Armistice" will be the theme at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening at 7 o'clock. Everybody welcome. Seats free.

Mrs. Annie Manson and daughter, Miss Nellie Manson, of Lynn, Mass., have been visiting relatives in Barre, their former home, after having been called here by the death of Private Arthur Manson.

Patrons of the railroad lines should bear in mind that the Montpelier and Wells River R. R. station at Montpelier will be closed today, the Central Vermont station being used under the new consolidation.

Students of Spaulding high school enjoyed a dance under the patronage of the faculty at the assembly hall last evening. More than 100 students participated in the fun, all four classes being represented. Readon's student orchestra played.

Henry Bond, who has been accompanying a party of Civil War veterans to the state white plans were in train for the home service campaign of the denomination next week, returned to his home in Brattleboro yesterday, after attending a conference in Barre.

The Ladies of the G. A. R. and the ladies' auxiliary of the Sons of Veterans will serve a dinner to the members of R. B. Crandall post, 56, and their wives and all allied orders at their hall, North Main block, at 1 p. m. Tuesday, Nov. 19, to commemorate the 50th anniversary of Lincoln's address at Gettysburg.

The Nature Study class of the Barre Woman's club will meet Monday evening, Nov. 18, at 7:30 with Miss Mary Carleton, 21 Highland avenue. The program will be as follows: "The Green Mountain Trail," Miss Carleton; "Mountain Flowers," Mrs. Milne. Any club member interested is cordially invited to these meetings.

The civic department of the Barre Woman's club announces the following: On Tuesday, Nov. 19, at 2:45 p. m., at Howland hall, Miss Lena C. Ross of Rutland, the state deputy probation officer for women, will speak and there will also be an informal talk on the home service work of the American Red Cross. Guest tickets, 15c.

Rally day in the Baptist Sunday school will be held one week from tomorrow, Sunday, Nov. 27. It is hoped by all interested that the attendance will be the largest in the school's history. It is the last day of the drive in the Christian enlistment week. Let all be present, not only at the Bible school, but also at the preaching services.

Guests arriving at Hotel Barre last night and this morning included the following people: Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Carter of Manchester, N. H.; A. C. Van Alstyne of Utica, N. Y.; J. F. MacLennan and George M. Baker of Bellows Falls, Miss Rebecca Selfridge of Boston, W. J. Attridge of Belvidere, Ill.; L. C. Leavens of Cambridge, R. H. Unwin of Randolph, James F. Cross of Northfield, J. F. Irish of Bridgeport, Conn.

A telephone message received this morning by J. K. Pirie said that Raymond Walker, son of Joseph D. Walker of St. Johnsbury, passed away last night. Mr. Walker is a well known retail dealer in Barre granite and frequently visited Barre on business. His son, who was 19 years old, had been ill since early in the fall. The funeral services will be held in St. Johnsbury Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Antonio Conti, a San Francisco street was fined $10 and costs of $6.05 in Magistrate H. W. Scott's court last evening for a breach of peace offense alleged to have been committed at the Arcade building, where he is employed. The respondent was arrested by Chief Sinclair on a complaint made to Grand Juror William W. Hart. The warrant charged Conti with a part in the altercation between workers of the Arcade building.

Public meetings of the Vermont conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints will be held in North Main block Sunday, Nov. 17. Two special services will be held, one at 2 p. m. and the other at 7 p. m. President W. P. Monson of Brooklyn, N. Y., will be the principal speaker, besides other speakers of Vermont. Come and hear the facts and truths of our doctrine explained. Special music of singing will be heard at each service. Everyone welcome, and, remember, no collection taken at our meetings.

In returning to their owners, bedding, etc., lent to the hospital during the recent epidemic, two pillows, supposed to belong to Mrs. Addie L. Clark of Perry street were left yesterday at a neighbor's during Mrs. Clark's absence. Her pillows already had been returned and there is nothing to show to whom the two pillows now at her home belong. Both are good pillows, not matted, the case of one having an embroidered letter upon it, appearing to be either a "G" or an "S." Anyone who lent pillows which have not been returned may find the missing ones at Mrs. Clark's.

A great movement will be inaugurated next Sunday in the Baptist denomination of this country, known as Christian enlistment week. About 7,000 churches will take part in it, touching nearly 2,000,000 people. The work is to get every man and woman connected with the denomination to pledge their allegiance to Jesus Christ. The Baptists of this city will have a share in the movement. A strong committee has been selected and the members of this committee will call in all the homes connected with the church some time during the week. Let it be clearly understood that it is not an appeal for money, but simply a renewal of our allegiance.

Positive exceptions to an alleged policy of criticism existing among correspondents of the Journal are taken by Alexander Ironside, a well known Barre labor man, in a lengthy letter to the editor in the current number of the Granite Cutters' Journal, which is the official organ of the granitecutters' international association. The writer pays his respects to the president of the association and those of his near associates who are working with him at the union headquarters in Quincy, Mr. Ironside takes the stand that much of the criticism is not constructive, and therefore should be omitted. Much of the blame, he asserts, rests with the local correspondents, whose duty it is to contribute a monthly letter to the Journal.

TALK OF THE TOWN

"Hate," a special six-reel feature, and "The Bull's Eye," to-day at the Bijou theatre.—adv.

The members of the sodality of the B. V. M. will receive holy communion in a body at the 9 o'clock mass to-morrow.

John Hyland, janitor at Spaulding high school, has returned from a trip to Boston, where he was called by the illness of a relative.

James Manson, who was called here by the death of his brother, Private Arthur Manson, returned yesterday to Squantum, Mass., where he is employed. William Squires, who is convalescing from a severe case of the influenza and pneumonia, was able to go home from the City hospital yesterday. His brother, George Squires, has returned to Boston.

Seaman Kio Granai, who has been passing an extended furlough at his mother's on North Main street, returned last night to Boston, where he is assigned to duty in the merchant marine. While here Seaman Granai, an alumnus of Montpelier seminary, renewed acquaintances at the school.

Eugene R. Robinson, who was injured in an auto accident at North Barre Monday, was able to return to his home in Waterbury yesterday, after having been treated at the City hospital. His companion, George Asbury, whose injuries were less severe, was discharged from the hospital the day after the accident.

Failing to find a countryside abounding in deer and other wild game, many of the hunters who set out from Barre with high hopes early in the week were working their way homeward to-day, vowing that even the oldest of their number could not recall a year when deer made themselves so persistently scarce. A slight fall of snow in mid-week favored those who had hit the trail, but the stuff which furnishes a carpet for tell-tale tracks did not increase the death rate among the deer, not to any appreciable extent. As the first week of the season draws to a close, only three deer have been brought to the city. One of them came from Maine. Market men are forced to ask top prices for venison, and folk who had set their hearts on a juicy deer steak for their Sunday dinner, will probably content themselves with less highly favored meats. The deer season ends Wednesday.

Two Barre men whose thoughts were far removed from high adventure when they left their places of business for dinner this noon came back to town in a milk wagon this afternoon, after being, as they believe, victimized by a hoodlum in a Ford car. W. W. Parry locked up his stonished office in Depot square and was joined by Walter McHugh. On their way up town they saw a forlorn that resembled the flivver of a neighbor, and so they got aboard. Two men on the front seat did not wait for queries, but the prow of the puddle-hopper was turned toward Williamstown. Despite the protestations of the passengers, the driver kept his vehicle in the teeth of the wind, and it was not until the wheels stopped somewhere south of Williamstown that explanations were made. The owner of the car and his companion said they were down for an afternoon of watchful waiting near the runway of a herd of Brookfield deer, and with that they drew from somewhere under the seat two rifles. Their passengers, liking but little the prospect of a prolonged wait, boarded a passing milk team and headed once more for Barre.

ENTHUSIASTIC PARISH SUPPER

Was Held By the Barre Congregational Church Last Evening.

The annual parish supper and get-together meeting of the Congregational church proved a delightful affair last evening and about 200 people gathered in the church parlor for the supper, which was held at 6 o'clock, and the informal speechmaking afterward. A hearty spirit of good fellowship was present everywhere and the evening was a very enjoyable one for all.

Eleven tables were filled with good things to eat and surrounded by their capacity with guests, part of the tables being reset to accommodate the large number unable to find seating room at the first table of the evening. The program, by the pastor, Rev. Dr. F. L. Goodspeed, the tables began to disappear with startling rapidity.

It was while those in attendance were still seated at the tables that the informal speechmaking began. H. G. Woodruff was master of ceremonies and in a pleasing way introduced the various speakers, who rehearsed some of the things accomplished in their departments and those which they hoped to see accomplished in the future.

For the primary department of the Sunday school, its superintendent, Mrs. O. G. Stickney, spoke; for the junior department, its superintendent, Mrs. Carl Eisenwinter; for the home department, Mrs. Harriet Chandler, for her mother, Mrs. Susan Chandler, superintendent; for the intermediate department, Charles A. Spear, superintendent.

Then, taking up the work of the church organization itself, Deacon J. C. Griggs was called upon to represent the church committee, C. H. White the business committee, Mrs. W. H. Gale the women's association, and Leonard R. Hutchinson the men of the parish.

Mrs. Isabelle Even, the pastor's assistant, told something of her work in the parish, and some chances for work by members of the church and congregation that she had observed.

Dr. Goodspeed then spoke very aptly of the work of the church, his observations since he came to Barre and some of the things which would like to see brought about in the church.

Much enthusiasm was evinced throughout the addresses and as the gathering broke up it was with greetings of good will and the feeling that the church will go "over the top" in whatever it attempts.

REFUSE TO FEED PRISONERS.

Germans Are Turning Captors Over to the Americans.

With the American Forces in Alsace-Lorraine, Nov. 16 (by the Associated Press).—Rumanian prisoners began reaching the American lines late yesterday. They said the Germans had freed them rather than give them food or provide transportation for them. The Rumanians appeared in groups at different parts of the front, being supplied with clothing and fed by the Americans. It is reported that the Germans all along the line are withdrawing in large numbers.

HERE'S ANOTHER.

Says Ex-Crown Prince Is Interned at Friend's Castle in Limburg.

London, Nov. 15.—Former Crown Prince Frederick William of Germany has been interned at the castle owned by his friend, Count Gisbert Wolf Metternich, at Swatman, a town in the province of Limburg, Holland, according to an Amsterdam dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company. ## THE UNION DRY GOODS COMPANY

MONTPELIER

The incorporators of the Montpelier Industrial corporation met in city hall last evening and organized, for the operation of the new shirt industry. The following directors were elected: G. L. Blanchard, H. J. Volholm, J. G. Brown, T. E. Callahan, G. D. Pitkin, G. R. Bianchi, Louis Gould, F. H. Tracy and E. H. Deavitt. The directors elected as officers: President, Mr. Blanchard; vice-president, Mr. Volholm; secretary and treasurer, E. M. Harvey, outside the directorship. The officers were authorized to buy the Green Syrup of Tar building at the option price and to make a contract with Peck Brothers for the new heating plant, with a committee composed of Messrs. Blanchard, Volholm and Callahan to supervise the work. A committee, composed of Messrs. Blanchard, Deavitt and Harvey, was named to close the contract with DuLac & Co., Inc., of Boston. It was voted that one-half the stock be paid by Dec. 1. By-laws were adopted, and the present directors and officers were elected until the annual meeting, which will occur in January. Seventeen of the incorporators were present.

The Lane Manufacturing company have made the repairs which were needed after the fire which took place two weeks ago Sunday morning. It cost the company about $1,400 to put the building back into shape. A new roof had to be put on the building, and the back of the core oven had to be repaired.

Gov. H. F. Graham has appointed as a member of the executive committee of the Vermont public safety committee H. B. Howe of St. Johnsbury, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Rev. Fraser Metzger.

Harry Pratt of Proctor, who has been lieutenant-colonel of the first regiment of Vermont volunteer militia, has presented his resignation to Gov. Graham, which has been accepted. Col. Pratt has recently accepted an appointment in Red Cross work in Boston and, therefore, relinquishes his work in the regiment. His successor has not been designated.

The Victory boys and girls of Montpelier have gone over the top, a total of 524 having signed to do their bit in earning and saving and have subscribed a total of $1,206. Those who have signed enjoyed a parade Friday afternoon on the principal streets of the city, carrying appropriate banners, setting forth what they have accomplished and are going to do. They were led by a fife and drum corps.

F. H. Brooks, state food administrator, has returned from Washington, D. C., where he attended a conference of the food administrators and those closely associated with the work. Herbert Hoover, the federal administrator, conducted several conferences and, incidentally, President Wilson spoke to an assembly of the representatives, giving an interesting address in which he showed his appreciation of their efforts during the war and urged them that they will have to put forth greater efforts now. The inconsistency of the new food regulations cannot be understood by some, but it is Mr. Hoover's purpose when there is a chance to let up that this be done, and if he has to put regulations back again it will be done; but at the present time the food products are piled up at the places of embarkation and the only way that the conditions could be relieved was to let down the regulations, as has been done. This will probably remain in force until the government gets more shipping, which will not take place for a few months. In the meantime the people of this nation are getting the benefit of the release on changed regulations of food.

While Mr. Hoover is in Europe, arranging the work of supplying food to the starving nations, his second assistant is to be in charge of the work here. Mr. Hoover is undertaking the biggest piece of work he has ever attempted in the food work, exceeding greater than the work done here. He will remain in Europe about six weeks on his first visit.

A man named Boisvert is said to have reported to John Hale that the carcass of a doe was lying beside the road, and Mr. Hale took the matter up with the game warden, with the result that the carcass was dressed and brought to Mr. Kent's market. John Ryan of St. Albans shot a 180-pound buck in Middlesex.
